

I think federally the call list should mirror NJ's policy. Really, nobody wants these calls and you must put faith in the public that they themselves can make an inquiry for such services when needed. In other words I do not want anyone calling me to pitch their products, I am capable of calling them if need be. We pay quite a handsome Fed tax just to keep our phones, please don't let them become polluted further with cold callers.
Peace Out.